In order to grow...

Gardens need water, sunlight and nutrients. The Monk Botanical Gardens needs those elements as well, plus the support of its Corporate Stewardship Community.

The Garden relies solely on the community's financial support to continue to develop into one of central Wisconsin's most outstanding cultural and educational attractions—or what many visitors have called “an urban sanctuary.”

Review the Corporate Stewardship Program benefits in this brochure, select a benefit level, and secure your membership either online at www.monkgardens.org or mail the attached registration form with payment to:
