

Friends of the Mead/McMillan Association, Inc.

Dear Librarian;

The Friends of the Mead/McMillan Association would like to inform you about our new DVD "A Journey through the Mead-On the Banks of the Little Eau Pleine". This DVD is an introductory video showcasing the management of the diverse landscape and wildlife found on the Mead Wildlife Area.

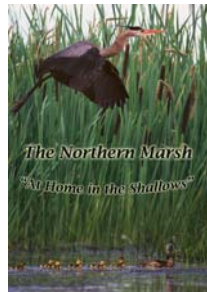

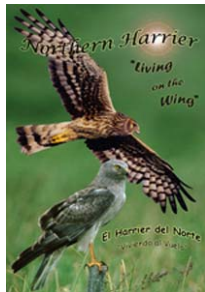

You are receiving this letter because teachers at your school bring their students to the Mead Wildlife Area for the environmental education programs that are offered there. We highly recommend that teachers have their students view this DVD before they visit the Mead Wildlife Area. Having a copy of the DVD in your library would make it easier for teachers to do this.

There are no fees for attending classes at the Mead Education and Visitor Center, however, sales of the DVDs help to support the environmental programs offered at the Center.

The DVD—"A Journey through the Mead"— Sells for $12 each no tax or
2 for $20 no tax
Plus $2.50 each for Shipping and Handling

The producer of this video also has 5 other DVD's featuring wildlife at the Mead.

They are: "Secrets of a Winter Swamp", "Northern Harrier-Living on the Wing" "The Northern Marsh" and "Land of the Whitetail" and "Down by the Beaver Pond". Trailers of these videos can be viewed on our website: www.meadwildlife.org.
