20th ANNIVERSARY

COLD WEATHER CULPRITS

THE ALTERNATOR, A NON-STARTER PROBLEM IN COLD WEATHER

As the temperatures dip, we all know there could be problems starting our vehicles. After all, batteries can grow old and not hold a charge as well as when they were newer. Or starters can go bad. But there's one more component to keep an especially sharp eye on during winter: your alternator.

The alternator is sort of like a small generator. It sends power out to various parts in your vehicle that need electricity. That includes the battery, which needs charging to keep its power topped off. The alternator creates electricity by taking mechanical energy from the engine and turning it into electricity. It is connected to the engine by belts and pulleys.

In cold weather, the material the belt is made from is less flexible than it is in warm weather. That means it may not be turning the pulleys as effectively since it doesn't have the same grip. Also, when it's colder, lubricants, including the engine oil, are a little stiffer and parts just don't move like they do when the weather's warmer. With that extra strain, sometimes it takes the alternator longer to recharge the battery. That, in turn, may leave the battery a little less power to start the engine when it's cold.

You may have a warning light on your instrument panel that looks like a battery. If it lights up or if you notice your headlights flickering or not shining quite as brightly as they usually do, it could mean a weak alternator. But it also could be an aging battery, corroded battery terminals, a loose belt or another charging system part. Yes, it's complicated.

Pinpointing the cause involves testing the battery and charging system with diagnostic equipment. If it does turn out to be an alternator, there are options besides replacing it with a brand new, original equipment part. Ask your Auto Select service advisor for recommendations. Obviously, you want your vehicle to start reliably, especially in cold weather. Take care of your charging system and it will take care of you.

I love going there because they are so respected and I just love their services. Theresa T - Green Bay West

My new go to place. I've done my own work on my vehicles for 45 yrs. But since retiring, I hire it out. Took the wife's Escape in for tires, LOF, and brake check. I figured the brakes needed work. They checked, and said the brakes still had 50% left. They could have screwed me. Could have BS'd me. They didn't. They were honest-and in the auto repair world that's golden. Always polite, prompt. Dan P - Shawano

Super friendly staff, not rude or pushy. My 1st visit. Was in for oil change. Honest & they have integrity, didn't feel like I was being misled or lied to like I have been at other places. They put air in my tires & topped off my wiper fluid. Lori A - SP East

Absolutely fantastic service! This well-oiled machine of a business has done nothing but an amazing job with my vehicle. Very impressed with the cleanliness, care, and value of this place! I will always recommend my family and friends to use their services because I know they would be well taken care of. Andrew did a wonderful job with my service as well! I also appreciate all of the precautions they go through to follow COVID guidelines! Abby - SP South

This place was a LIFE-SAVER! No wait, immediate assistance and quick repair/replacement of a flat tire while on a road trip across the state. On our way, again shortly after. Extremely helpful, friendly and professional and offered the best option at a beyond-reasonable rate. Highly recommend. Amanda L - SP Express

Auto Select is one of the most reputable companies I know. I've been using them for over a decade. Their workmanship is second to none. The team of service writers and technicians are knowledgeable and they will not steer you wrong. Jonathon K - Weston

HUMOR

As Sally was getting to know Tom and his family, she was very impressed by how much his parents loved each other. "They're so thoughtful," Sally said, "Your Dad even brings your Mom a cup of hot coffee in bed every morning." After a time, Sally and Tom were engaged, and then they were married. On the way from the wedding to the reception, Sally again remarked on Tom's loving parents and even the coffee in bed. "Tell me," Sally said, "Does it run in the family?" "It sure does," replied Tom. "And I take after my Mom."

What's that piece of string tied around your finger for?" "My wife put it there to remind me to take a letter to the Post Office." "And did you you mail it?" "No, she forgot to give me the letter."

Garlic Butter Chicken Thighs Skillet

INGREDIENTS:	1 tbsp olive oil	¼ cup chicken stock
3-6 skinless, boneless chicken thighs	Salt and pepper	1 tsp paprika
1 ½ lb, baby yellow potatoes, halved or quartered	3 tbsp butter divided	1 tbsp hot sauce
1 tsp Italian seasoning	Juice of ½ lemon	1 tsp onion powder
	4 garlic cloves, minced	½ cup fresh chopped parsley

DIRECTIONS:

- In a small bowl, combine onion powder, paprika, italian seasoning, salt and pepper. Season chicken thighs with this spice mixture, set aside.
- Boil baby potatoes in a pot of salted water for 5 minutes. Drain and set aside.
- In a large skillet over medium-high heat, melt 1 tbsp olive oil and 1 tbsp butter. Add pre-cooked potato wedges. Cook for about 4 minutes, stir and cook an additional 4-5 minutes until potato wedges are golden and fork tender. Transfer the sauteed potatoes to a plate and clean the skillet.
- In the same skillet, melt 2 tablespoons butter over medium-low heat. Lay the seasoned chicken thighs in one layer in the skillet. Cook 5-6 minutes then flip and cook another 5-6 minutes until cooked through. Transfer chicken to a plate and set aside.
- In the same skillet, melt the remaining tablespoon butter. Add lemon juice, chopped parsley, garlic and hot sauce. Add chicken stock and reduce the heat for a couple minutes until slightly thickened.
- Add the cooked chicken thighs and potatoes back to the skillet and reheat quickly, coating with the sauce. Enjoy!
